UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME
TO RESPOND TO COURT'S APRIL 30, 2007, ORDER

The United States requests an enlargement of time of 10 (ten) days to respond to the Court's order of April 30, 2007, directing the United States to provide the Court with an affidavit and explanation if necessary as to the amounts due as to Count I of the complaint after recomputing defendant's liability in accordance with the April 30, 2007, order.¹

The grounds for this motion are that because of the nature of the recomputations involved, the Internal Revenue Service has assigned a computation specialist that has not previously worked on this matter to recompute the amounts due in accordance with the Court's April 30, 2007, order. The employee has apprised counsel that the recomputations will be performed within a period of ten days.

Defendant's counsel does not oppose the relief requested.

¹The United States filed a declaration concerning Count II of the complaint today.

Wherefore, the United States moves that Court for an order permitting it an additional ten days to file an affidavit and explanation of the amounts due as to Count I in accordance with the Court's April 30, 2007, order. A proposed order granting the relief requested is attached.

Dated: April 10, 2007.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jonathan D. Carroll
